*note that on the 2nd tag the music fades and there is some talk which I didn't even try to do any steps to, so you can improvise or catch your breath while waiting for the beat to return. There is a brief 'warning' to be ready to restart the dance as you step off when he starts to sing again - on the first "Kiss".

I heard this on the Eurovision song contest (it was Germany's entrant) and had to have it - who would believe that you'd find such a great song on that show ? It is readily available as a download on the net - I got it only 2 days after I saw the show - the wonders of technology !!! - and I believe it will be on a Eurovision CD compilation also.
